

WHO AND WHAT
YOU NEED TO KNOW

Welsh Assembly Building Lobby

The Welsh Assembly Government is responsible for most of the issues of day-to-day concern to the people of Wales, including the economy, health, education, and local government. The role of the Welsh Assembly Government is to exercise functions devolved to it in order to: make decisions on matters which affect people's daily lives; develop and implement policy; make subordinate legislation (eg regulations and statutory guidance) and propose Assembly Measures (Welsh laws).

The Welsh Assembly Government consists of:

- The First Minister
- The Welsh Ministers (as described in the Government of Wales Act 2006)
- The Counsel General
- The Deputy Welsh Ministers

The provisions of the Government of Wales Act 2006 allows up to 12 Welsh Ministers and Deputy Ministers. This means that the maximum size of the Welsh Assembly government will be 14, including the First Minister and Counsel General.
